David Peters, L.Ac., LMBT, co-founder of Long Life Wellness Center, has been voted in as President of the NCAAOM, by the Board of Directors, succeeding Daerr Reid, who resigned in July. His lengthy credentials also include massage therapy, herbal medicine, lifestyle/nutritional counseling and meditation. David was appointed to the North Carolina Licensing Board by President Pro Tempore Phil Berger and was elected to serve as Chairman.

“The NCAAOM is extremely pleased with David’s appointment,” said Denise Graham, NCAAOM Executive Director. “He is an active member of the acupuncture community and a strong advocate for legislation surrounding the field.”

Ms. Graham also thanked Ms. Reid for her leadership and dedication, having served as president from April 2014 to July 2016.
