

North Carolina Association of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine Community Leadership Award

The NCAAOM Community Leadership Award recognizes the achievements of a member who has gone above and beyond the call of duty at the local level providing community service, education, advocacy, and has had a significant impact on the local community as a whole. Individuals are selected on the basis of the value and degree of their service overall. The Community Leadership Award is presented at the NCAAOM Annual Member Meeting.

Deadline: April 6, 2017

Selection Criteria: Nominations will be reviewed for the quality and impact of the candidate's service contributions. Successful nominations will demonstrate a sustained and/or enduring contribution to the local community. Nominations can focus on an important body of service contributions over a significant period of time, or one particularly influential contribution.

Submissions: Nominations for the NCAAOM Community Leadership Award should be submitted using the Community Leadership Award form. Each nomination will include the following:

- Name, address, phone number, and email address of the person making the nomination.
- Name of the candidate being nominated. It is NCAAOM's policy not to tell candidates who have nominated or endorsed them.
- Nomination statement: This should be a concise statement (maximum of 25 words) describing the key impact and service for which the candidate merits this award. This may describe the candidate's work in general, but should draw particular attention to the contributions that merit the award. Note that the final wording for awardees will be at the discretion of the Awards Committee.
