

North Carolina Association of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine
Exceptional Educator Award

The NCAAOM Exceptional Educator Award recognizes a member who has provided outstanding educational opportunities on the professional, as well as the community level, by providing continuing education to acupuncturists, educational outreach to the public, and as a result has improve the overall well-being of the community. Education events should reflect direct involvement with the population of North Carolina, and may also include national events. Individuals are selected on the basis of the value and degree of their service overall. The Exceptional Educator Award is presented at the NCAAOM Annual Member Meeting.

Deadline: April 6, 2017

Selection Criteria: Nominations will be reviewed for the quality and impact of the candidate's service contributions. Successful nominations will demonstrate a sustained and/or enduring contribution to the community and profession. Nominations can focus on an important body of service contributions over a significant period of time, or one particularly influential contribution.

Submissions: Nominations for the NCAAOM Exceptional Educator Award should be submitted using the Exceptional Educator Award form (see below). Each nomination includes the following:

- Name, address, phone number, and email address of the person making the nomination.
- Name of the candidate being nominated. It is NCAAOM's policy not to tell candidates who have nominated or endorsed them.
- Nomination statement: This should be a concise statement (maximum of 25 words) describing the key impact and service for which the candidate merits this award. This may describe the candidate's work in general, but should draw particular attention to the contributions that merit the award. Note that the final wording for awardees will be at the discretion of the Awards Committee.
